Lodging Houses and Tenements—Required to be Kept Clean—Overcrowding Prohibited. (Ord. Feb. 15, 1916.)

SEC. 66. Every owner or keeper of a lodging house and every owner, lessee or agent of a tenement house and apartment house or other building leased as dwelling for more than two families shall keep or cause to be kept in a clean and thoroughly sanitary condition all and every part of such house, tenement or building; shall also keep clean or cause to be kept clean every yard, court, alley, area, and passage connected with or belonging to said building to the satisfaction of the board of health or its agents.

SEC. 67. That no person, lessee, firm, or corporation within the limits of the city of Uniontown shall maintain a lodging house or rooms so overcrowded that there shall be afforded less than 600 cubic feet of air space to each occupant of such building or room.

Foodstuffs—Sale and Protection. (Ord. Feb. 15, 1916.)

SEC. 31. No meat, fish, birds, fowls, fruit, vegetables, or milk, and nothing for human food not being then healthy, fresh, sound, wholesome, fit, and safe for such use, nor any animal or fish that died by disease, and no carcass of any calf, pig, or lamb which at the time of its death was less than four weeks old and no meat therefrom shall be brought within the limits of this city, or offered or held for sale as food anywhere in the city.

SEC. 32. All stores, shops, stands, and wagons from which meat, fish, poultry, fruit, vegetables, or other articles of food are vended or in which they are stored, must at all times be kept clean and in a sanitary condition, free from offensive odors, or any accumulation of decomposed animal or vegetable matter, and shall at all times be open to the health officer of the city or other authorized agent of the board of health.

SEC. 33. All food products, confectionery, candied fruit, cracked nuts, salted peanuts, and all other food, fruit, or nuts eaten unwashed, and offered for sale in the city of Uniontown must be protected from dust, dirt, and handling by the public at all times and be properly screened.

SEC. 34. No person, firm or corporation selling meats, fish, fruit, or vegetables shall expose them on sidewalks or on outside counters at stores, shops, or on stands or wagons unless they shall be placed at least 2½ feet from the ground, pavement, or floor, and shall be thoroughly screened and protected from flies.

Bakeries—Sanitary Regulation—Employees—Vehicles. Bakery Products—Protection. (Ord. Feb. 15, 1916.)

SEC. 56. Every baker and handler of bread or other meal-food products shall be free from any infectious or contagious disease and shall at all times keep his person and clothing in a clean and sanitary condition. All bakeries with their fixtures and utensils must be kept clean, sanitary, well lighted, screened and ventilated, with such other requirements as may be deemed necessary by the health authorities to maintain a condition of cleanliness and wholesomeness of all food products therefrom.

SEC. 57. All bakers' wagons shall be covered and the receptacles for bread and other meal foods shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

SEC. 58. All bread offered or intended for sale shall be suitably wrapped when it leaves the bakery, each loaf separately, in paraffine or yellow wrapping paper, in such a manner as to completely protect the bread from flies, dust, and dirt, the provisions hereof applying also to cakes, pies, biscuits, and all other baked goods.
